Re: NJPA to be formally known as Sourcewell

National Joint Powers Alliance (NJPA) will formally be known as Sourcewell beginning the summer of 2018. The NJPA board of directors voted unanimously to change the organization's name to Sourcewell. Documentation has been formally submitted and Sourcewell has been registered and trademarked both federally and in Minnesota with the appropriate agencies. As of June 6, 2018 NJPA will begin operating under the name Sourcewell.

NJPA has worked intentionally to mitigate the implications of this change to current and potential members, currently awarded vendors, and other existing partners. Following June 6th, Sourcewell will maintain and continue to recognize the National Joint Powers Alliance name. Membership agreements, contracts and agreements entered into with the National Joint Powers Alliance name will remain valid and continue in effect without impact. This will ensure contractual continuity and safeguard any disruptions to engagement with Sourcewell or NJPA. This includes membership, use of cooperative purchasing contracts, or other binding contractual engagements.

For all other inquiries relating to the name change from NJPA to Sourcewell, please call or email the contract administration team.

Sourcewell's creation was authorized by Minnesota law as an Educational Service Cooperative Unit, Independent School District #924, to serve education, government, and nonprofit entities with solutions, as outlined in Minn. Stat. 123A.21, subd. 7, which are more efficiently delivered cooperatively than by each entity individually. As a service cooperative, Sourcewell is a governmental unit of the State of Minnesota, all Sourcewell employees are government employees.

Sourcewell is governed by an eight-member board made up of county commissioners, city councilmembers, mayors, or school board members.

How it Works

Cooperative purchasing is procurement conducted by, or on behalf of, one or more governmental units for use by other governmental units.

Sourcewell is committed to serving member agencies by researching common needs and solutions. The result is an opportunity to purchase the very best products, equipment, and services through nationally solicited contracts.

Competitive Procurement Process

Sourcewell's procurement process is continuously being refined to meet the changing needs of our members. Sourcewell's process is completed in accordance with Minnesota law. Sourcewell determined the use of an RFP benefits members more than the use of an Invitation for Bid (IFB). The use of an RFP allows vendors to decrease pricing based on volume.

Sourcewell follows a procurement process that includes:

Identify member needs and research solutions

Sourcewell identifies areas of need through daily member interactions and advisory committees, and then researches the best approach for each offering.

Board of directors approves proposed solicitations

Draft and publicize solicitations by advertising Requests for Proposals (RFPs) in various print newspapers nationwide and on multiple websites

Pre-proposal conferences followed by receipt of sealed responses

Upon approval by the CPO, the recommended vendor is awarded a four-year contract term with the potential for an additional one-year extension at the discretion of Sourcewell. Members have the ability to propose supplemental terms and conditions to the Sourcewell contract to meet their local requirements.

Posting and reviewing approved contract documents

A complete procurement file is maintained by Sourcewell, and contract documentation is posted on our website for review by our members. Our procurement specialists periodically review documentation for compliance and effectiveness. Sourcewell considers price and product change requests based on contract terms.

Sourcewell Procurement Process

Solicitation Process

While it is the desire of Sourcewell to meet our members' procurement requirements, it is ultimately our members' responsibility to interpret local purchasing laws to determine their own ability to access and utilize Sourcewell contracts.

Our rigorous request for proposal (RFP) process is continuously being refined to meet the changing needs of our members. The desired result is a national, competitively solicited procurement and contract process that is not only valued by members but meets or exceeds their requirements—offering exceptional products and services from nationally acclaimed vendors.

1. Identify Member Needs and Research Solutions

Sourcewell identifies areas of need through daily member interactions and advisory committees, then researches the best approach for each offering.

2. Seek Authorization from Sourcewell's Board of Directors

After establishing the existence of member needs and a viable industry solution, permission from the publicly elected Sourcewell Board of Directors is sought to officially begin the development of the solicitation and overall procurement process.

3. Draft Solicitation, Public Advertisement, and Notice

Our solicitation document is the cornerstone of cooperative contract purchasing. The consistency of the solicitation document, its response forms and evaluation criteria, are some of our greatest assets.

Sourcewell advertises each RFP:

- In print and online: Salt Lake News (Utah), USA Today (National), Daily Journal of Commerce (Oregon), The State (South Carolina)
- On the Sourcewell website
- On e-commerce sites: Biddingo, MERX, Onvia, PublicPurchase

We also notify each state procurement department for re-posting of the solicitation within their system at their option.

4. Conduct Pre-Proposal Conference, Followed by Receipt of Responses

Proposers are typically given five to six weeks from the advertisement of the RFP to respond. A Pre-Proposal Conference is conducted to answer questions and provide clarification. An addendum may be issued as necessary.

For accuracy, Sourcewell time and date stamps each Proposal immediately upon receipt at our office in Staples, MN. Sourcewell conducts a public opening of the proposals received at the time, date, and place specified in the RFP.

5. Evaluate Responses

Evaluation begins at the proposal opening by determining the responsiveness of each proposal. The final evaluation is conducted using the "Proposal Evaluation" form defined in the RFP (Form G). Click here for an example.

6. Provide Recommendation to Chief Procurement Officer (CPO)

Recommendations of the evaluation committee are presented to the CPO for final review and possible award. The CPO has the final authority to issue or deny a procurement contract.

7. Award Vendors

Upon approval by the CPO, the recommended vendor is awarded a four-year contract term with the potential for an additional one-year extension at the discretion of Sourcewell. The Procurement Department sends Notice of Award or Non-Award to all respondents via email.

8. Posting and Reviewing Approved Contract Documents

A complete procurement file is maintained by Sourcewell, and contract documentation is posted on our website for review by our members and are periodically reviewed for compliance and effectiveness. Vendors are allowed to seek price and product changes upon the approval from Sourcewell.
